

IE expo China 2022 (Shenzhen Edition)

Beyond everyone's expectations!

IE expo China 2022, as a member exhibition of the 24th China Hi-Tech Fair (CHTF), was held successfully from November 15 -17, 2022 in Shenzhen.

IE expo China 2022 attracted about 650 exhibitors to present their advanced technologies. In combination with China Hi-Tech Fair (CHTF), the show welcomed more than 100,000 trade visitors, including 600 journalists from 100 Chinese and international media. There were many local industry partners who organized high level delegations, such as Shenzhen Water Service Society, Shenzhen Water and Environment Group, Shenzhen Baoan Drainage Co., Ltd., Huizhou Environmental Protection Industry Association, etc.

Onsite conferences focused among others on "Comprehensive Basin Treatment and Sustainable Development" and "Guangdong Sludge Treatment and Disposal and Resource Utilization Forum".

At the same time, IE expo China has launched the inaugural platform of high-tech equipment together with Guangdong Environmental Protection Industry Association. As one of the organizers of the trade fair, Guangdong Association of Environmental Protection Industry has built several platforms to strengthen the exchange of industrial pollution control needs, to display the implementation of technical achievements and to release the demand for enterprise talents. These participants were comprised of many local industries including electroplate, textile, printing and dyeing industry, etc.
